Webcams for Kansas Judicial Districts

Evidence-based practices suggest engaging with families early on in the process and maintaining consistent communication with them throughout the youth's involvement in the juvenile justice process. Family engagement should begin at the first decision point and continue until the conclusion of the case. KDOC Juvenile Services is preparing a plan for enhancing youth and family's communication by implementing a Polycom Webcam system in Kansas. Our goals are to:

- Encourage more contact between incarcerated youth and their supportive family members while also emphasizing safety and security as necessary;
- Enhance interdisciplinary case management teams to include case managers at the facility and/or provider, behavioral health services, education, social services, family members, and community supervision officers;
- Use webcams to encourage and/or increase participation by family members in the case management and pre-release process;
- Enhance communication between incarcerated youth and supportive family members who are unable to visit the facility.

The juvenile correctional facilities will each receive one Polycom judicial unit to assist with enhancing meaningful family connections between internal and external service providers, family members, and incarcerated youth. A Webcam will be installed in each of the thirty-one judicial districts in order to encourage contact between service providers, parents, and youth who are placed either at the JCF or in one of the YRC IIs across the state.

The use of webcams and Polycom judicial carts is not intended to eliminate telephone or face-to-face visits between justice-involved youth and their families. The system may assist families and service providers to safely and cost-effectively work more closely together during the reintegration process. Implementation of webcams as a means of communication will assist families for whom travel across the state is not possible. The use of webcams allows service providers and families to engage with incarcerated youth so a relationship is maintained. They can also assist in organizing the transition from incarceration to the post-custodial stage of discharge planning and re-entry.

THE CONTACT PERSON

The Contact person is the resource in your office when it comes to using the Webcam. The Contact person must schedule your call ahead of time. He or she will schedule your office's calls in the RealPresence calendar and provide assistance to users when needed. Our Customer Service Help Desk is available during work hours to answer your questions. The number is 785-231-1111.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE CONTACT PERSON

The Contact person for your office is the point person responsible for the use of the Webcam. The Contact person:

- Sets up the Webcam;
- Makes sure the Webcam is located in an easily accessible place, and is where conversations are private and not overheard by others;
- Identifies the initial list of Webcam users in your office;
- Downloads the RealPresence software to a computer in your office;
- Works with Juvenile Services staff to test the Webcam software;
- Handles the calendar for scheduling the calls in your office;
- Is the keeper of the Bridge Number and user manual;

EXPECTATIONS

- The Webcam should be placed on a PC or laptop accessible to users;
- The PC or laptop with Webcam should be located in an area where conversations are private, unable to be heard by others;
- Webcams should always focus on the users' faces, from the neck up - never anywhere else on the body - especially when offenders are involved in the call. If this expectation is violated by any party to the call, the call shall be immediately terminated and the incident handled through existing disciplinary procedures.

TIPS AND TRICKS

- Make sure you have the Conference Entry Passcode in-hand before you place the call.
- Connect and test any additional equipment before the meeting.
- Avoid wearing bright colors, all-light or all-dark clothing, or "busy" patterns.
- Light pastels and muted colors look the best on the screen.
- Adjust your camera so the far site can see you. Fill the screen with people rather than with the table, chairs, walls, lights, or floor.
- Adjust your microphone so the far site can hear you. Mute the microphone before moving it.
- Make sure you can see and hear the far-site participants.
- Introduce participants when the meeting starts. Speak in your normal voice without shouting. Use natural gestures when you speak.
- Don't tap on the microphone or rustle papers near the microphone. In a multipoint call, mute your microphone when you are not speaking.
